Contents

ARCHITECTURE: THE PAST AND THE PRESENT

Attila Kulcsár: Creating New Styles in Calvinist Church Buildings ........................................ 157
Anna Erzsébet Molnár and Katalin Csobán: The Rebirth of Castles: The Utilization of Hungarian Castles as Tourist Attractions .............................................................................. 169
Péter Bodó: Prisms behind the Lion: The Mixing of Modernism and the Art Deco in the Heroes’ Mausoleum ......................................................................................................................... 181
Imre Nyul: A Forgotten Architect: Árpád Stegmüller ................................................................ 188

STUDIES

Pál Czeglédi and Judit Edit Futó: A Historic Victory for Women – and for Claudia Goldin...... 215
Balázs Venkovits: “A State Wrapped in the Fog of a Fairy-tale”: The Activities of Sáumel Zágonyi against Hungarian Emigration to Canada ................................................................. 234
Máté Horog: Easter Customs in Former Debrecen: A Short Summary ..................................... 249
Máté Benedek: Oppenheimer in Context .................................................................................. 266

BOOK REVIEWS

Methods of Success. Norbert Béres: The Popular Prose Fiction of the Fin de Siècle
(Hajnalka Szolyka) ..................................................................................................................... 279
The Cooperation of Slovakian and Hungarian Historians to Map the Past of the Two Countries. Peter Konya and Annamária Konyová (eds.): Chapters from the History of the Hapsburg Monarchy in the Early Modern Age (János Barta, Jr.) ................................................................. 283
The Eleventh. Péter Fodor and József Lapis (eds.): Unstable Balance: An Anthology of the Alföld Studio (Norbert Béres) .............................................................................................................. 288
Mirrors Hold up to Life in the Old Calvinist Church: the Transtibiscan Synedic Documents.
Veronika Dáné and István Szabadi (eds.): Synodic Documents of the Transtibiscan Reformed Church District (Róbert Oláh) ........................................................................................................ 293
A Panoramic View of Teaching Music against a Historical Background. Judit Váradi: The Situation and Role of Teaching Art in the 21st Century (Gergely Kovács) ........................................ 295
An Introduction into Historiography and Its Methods (Dominik Herka) ................................ 298

Authors of this Issue ..................................................................................................................... 303
Contents ....................................................................................................................................... 304